

Program. SEET 2010

Thursday 28

08:45-09:00 Welcome

09:00-10:30. Session 1A. Social preferences

- Charitable giving and seed money under free-rider anonymity.
Amrish Patel (U. Gothenburgh)
- Publicity and Generosity: Evidence from a Field Experiment.
Marta Maras (Bocconi University)
- Envy and equilibrium with social preferences
Debrah Meloso (Boconni University)

09:00-10:30. Session 1B. Markets I

- Entry into Auctions: An Experimental Analysis
Seda Ertac (Koc University); Ali Hortacsu (University of Chicago); James Roberts (Duke University)
- Vertical separation vs. independent downstream entry in the Spanish electricity network.
Aitor Ciarreta (U País Vasco); Enrique Fatás (U Valencia); Nikolaos Georgantzis (U Granada); Carlos Gutiérrez-Hita (U. Miguel Hernández)
- An experiment on sequential resource extraction with compensation
Stefan Ambec, Giuseppe Attanasi and Gastón Andres Giordana (Toulouse School of Economics (LERNA))

10:30-11:00. Break.

11:00-12:30 Session 2A. Human Physiology and Behavior

- Organizing effects of testosterone and economic behavior: not just risk taking.
Pablo Brañas Garza (U. Granada); Aldo Rustichini (U. Minnesota)
- Testosterone, facial symmetry and cooperation in the Prisoner's Dilemma.
Santiago Sánchez-Pagés (Edinburgh School of Economics); Enrique Turiegano (U. Autónoma Madrid)

11:00-12:30 Session 2B. Group effects

- Group identity and coalition formation.
James Tremewan (Toulouse School of Economics)
- Peer effects in trust game experiments.
Luigi Luini (U. Siena); Niall O'Higgins (U. Salerno); Patrizia Sbriglia (U. Naples II)
- Peer evaluations and team performance: When friends do worse than strangers.
Brice Corgnet (U. Navarra)

12:30-13:30. Lunch.

15:00- 18:00. Discussion of work in progress.

Friday 29

09:00-10:30 Session 3A. Human Physiology and Behavior

- (Eye-)Tracking the market: Visual information in experimental asset markets.
Owen Powell (U. Carlos III)
- Eye-tracking and decision under uncertainty.
Alessandro Innocenti (U. Siena)
- Physiological studies (skin conductance and heart rate measurements) providing future prospects for Neuroeconomics.
Tuna Cakar (Middle East Technical University)

09:00-10:30 Session 3B. Markets II

- Managerial incentives and Stackelberg equilibria in oligopoly.
Marcella Scrimatore (U. Salento)
- Tacit collusion in Cournot oligopolies.
José Luis Ferreira (U. Carlos III); Praveen Kujal (U. Carlos III).
- Do social networks prevent bank runs?
Hubert Janos Kiss (U. Autónoma Madrid); Ismael Rodríguez Lara (U. Alicante); Alfonso Rosa García (U. Murcia)

10:30-11:00 Break

11:00-13:00. Session 4A. Cognition

- Cognitive underpinnings of behavior in Traveler's Dilemma: Treasures and contradictions revisited.
T. Bajo Molina (U. Granada); J. Morales (U. Granada); Pablo Brañas Garza (U. Granada); Nikolaos Georgantzis (U. Granada); M. Parravano (U. Granada)
- Scale sensitivity and question order in the contingent valuation method.
Henrik Andersson (Toulouse School of Economics); Mikael Svensson (Örebro University)
- Reexamining Coherent Arbitrariness.
Drew Fudenberg, David K. Levine and Zacharias Maniadis (U. Bocconi)
- Do People Use Recognition Heuristic to Choose Stocks? An experiment Study.
Lina Diao (Max Planck Institut)

11:00-13:00. Session 4B. Decisions under risk

- The role of collective winners in individual decision making under risk.
Ayça Ebru Giritligil (Istanbul Bilgi U.); Nikolaos Georgantzis (U. Granada)
- Preference for Control and Investment in Risky Assets under Comparative and Non-comparative Mindset: An Experimental Investigation
Li King King (Max Planck Institut)
- Deal or No Deal? Decision Making under Risk in the Laboratory
Ainhoa Jaramillo (U. Castilla- la Mancha)

13:00-14:00. Lunch

15:00- 18:00. Discussion of work in progress.

Saturday 30

09:00-11:00. Meeting of the Organizing Committee

11:00-12:30. Discussion of work in progress.

12:30-14:30 Lunch.

15:00-18:00. Discussion of work in progress.

Sunday 31

09:00-10:00. Session 5A. Public Goods

- Is a public goods experiment like Fight Club? Strategic Interaction and the crowding-out effect on altruism.
Antonio Filippin (U. Milan); Manuela Raimondi (U. Parma)
- An experimental analysis of the Tiebout's model in a decentralized system of public goods provision.
Alessandro Innocenti (Siena U.); Chiara Rapallini (Firenze U.)

09:00-10:30 Session 5B. Social networks

- Learning in networks.
Jaromir Kovàrik (U. País Vasco); Friederike Mengel (Maastricht U.); Gabriel Romero (U. Santiago de Chile)
- Strategies in Social Network Formation.
Anna Conte (Max Planck Institut), Daniela Di Cagno (LUISS), Emanuela Sciubba (Birkbeck College)

10:00-10:30. Break.

10:30-12:00 Session 6A. Preferences

- TBA
Rosemarie Nagel (U. Pompeu Fabra)
- Social Preferences over Utilities
Daniela Di Cagno (Luiss Guido Carli, Rome), Glenn W. Harrison (University of Central Florida), Raffaele Miniaci (Universit`a di Brescia), Giovanni Ponti (U. Alicante, U. Ferrara)
- Contracting under reciprocal altruism.
Oleg Shchetinin (U. Gothenburg)

10:30-12:00 Session 6B. Incentives

- Sticks and carrots in procurement.
Maria Bigoni (U. Bologna); Giancarlo Spagnolo (U. Rome); Paola Valbonesi (U. Padova)
- Punishing inattentiveness – the Joshua Knobe effect revisited.
Andreas Haupt (Institut für Soziologie Lehrstuhl); Tobias Uske (Max Planck Institut)
- Committing to Incentives: Should the Decision to Sanction be revealed or hidden?
Charlotte Klempt (Max Planck Institute)

12:00-13:30. Lunch

15:00- 18:00. Discussion of work in progress.